

Brussels Energy Storage New Energy Enterprise

Overview

Scheduled to begin construction in March 2026 and commissioned by September 2027, the project aims to deliver grid flexibility, integrate renewable energy, and enhance national grid stability. ENGIE has awarded NHOA Energy the contract to supply, commission, and provide long-term services for a new 80 MW / 320 MWh Battery Energy Storage System (BESS) at ENGIE's Drogenbos power station near Brussels, Belgium. ENGIE has started building one of Europe's largest Battery Energy Storage Systems. In just 16 months, and ahead of schedule, Engie has built one of Europe's largest battery parks. Just a few weeks after starting commercial operation of the first half of its battery park in Vilvoorde, Engie has also connected the second 100 MW/400 MWh portion to the high-voltage grid.
